Addendum added 1/26/2022

HCR22-1001 , Statutory Initiative Petition Signature Requirements
H-Spon	R. Holtorf
S-Spon	J. Sonnenberg
Summary	The Colorado constitution currently requires any petition for a citizen-initiated constitutional amendment to be signed by at least 2% of the registered electors who reside in each state senate district for the change to be placed on the ballot. If approved by the voters at the November 2022 general election, the concurrent resolution would extend this requirement to a citizen-initiated statutory change.
Status	Introduced In House – Assigned to State, Civic, Military & Veterans Affairs
Position	Pending

HB22-1045 , Statutory Initiative Petition Signature Requirements
H-Spon	R. Holtorf
S-Spon	J. Sonnenberg
Summary	The Colorado constitution currently requires any petition for a citizen-initiated constitutional amendment to be signed by at least 2% of the registered electors who reside in each state senate district for the change to be placed on the ballot. If a constitutional amendment that extends this requirement to a citizen-initiated statutory change is approved by the voters of the state at the 2022 general election, the bill makes a conforming statutory change to extend the requirement.
Status	Introduced In House - Assigned to State, Civic, Military, & Veterans Affairs
