

Potential Regions Oversight Model

- Six region structure with representatives from each region on an overall executive committee
- A large amount of opioid abatement funds would go to the regions
- Each region would need their own governance model

