

FAMLI Program FAQ, with Example Resolution and Notification Letter:

July 25, 2022

These two Q&A sections below address some general questions about the Colorado Family Medical Leave Insurance (FAMLI) Program and overview local government employer options. Also, below are examples of a Resolution to Opt-Out of the FAMLI Program and a companion Notification to Employees of the opt-out action.

This information is provided as an SDA Member service; it is not intended as legal advice. If you have questions or need assistance, please reach out to your district’s legal counsel, human resource professionals, or use CSD Pool resources if your district is a Pool Member.

If your District elects to opt-out of the FAMLI Program, your District Board must take action to notify the Division of Family Medical Leave Insurance (the “Division”) before January 1, 2023 to avoid automatic enrollment and premium payment obligation.

I. General information about FAMLI

Question	Answer
What is FAMLI?	The Colorado Family Medical Leave Insurance (FAMLI) Program was approved at the 2020 statewide election and generally requires payment of payroll premiums starting January 1, 2023 , to provide up to twelve (12) weeks of paid FAMLI leave beginning January 1, 2024 .
What agency is administering this program?	The Division of Family Medical Leave Insurance (the “Division”) in the Colorado Department of Labor and Employment is administering the FAMLI Program.  The Division has an active webpage , with training and information.
To which employers does this apply?	Unlike the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the new Colorado FAMLI requirement applies to employers of any size, public or private.  There are exceptions from participating for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• employers providing leave through a private plan that meets or exceeds the requirements of FAMLI, or</li><li>• local government employers declining to participate. See below.</li></ul>
How are premiums collected and benefits paid?	In general, employers and employees will both pay premiums, which is similar to unemployment benefits (UI). <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Employers with 10 or more employees will pay a premium of 0.45% of wages.</li></ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Employers with fewer than 10 employees will not pay an employer premium.</li> <li>• Employees will pay a premium of 0.45% of wages.</li> </ul> Employers will collect and remit employee premiums, unless the employer has been granted a waiver or is a local government employer that has opted-out entirely.
How do employees get paid?	Similar to UI, employees make a claim to the Division for FAML I benefits and will be paid through the FAML I Program during their leave (rather than being paid by the employer.)
How does leave under FAML I differ from other types of paid leave?	The Division has information and training on this issue. The March 31, 2022 Division webinar may be viewed at this link, the slides are available at this link, and the FAQs are here. The Division FAQ document responds to a lot of questions on how leave benefits under FAML I may differ or interact with federal FMLA and other types of paid sick leave or paid time off. Materials from the March 31, 2022 webinar indicate that additional information, including a matrix describing how leave programs may interact, will be published in 2023.

II. Local government employer options

The Division has a page dedicated to Local Governments here, which provides an overview of timelines, FAQs, a Fact Sheet, and other information. [July Update: the Division’s Local Government FAQ is updated continuously, so if you have a question that was not previously addressed, check the FAQ link for new information – and feel free to send the Division any additional questions that are not yet on the FAQ page and consider cc.ing your SDA colleagues.]

The Division conducted a “FAML I and Local Governments” webinar on April 29, 2022. A recording of that webinar is available here, the slides are available here, and the Division guidance document, “Preparing for FAML I – Local Governments,” is available at this link.

The Division conducted a training for the Special Districts Association of Colorado on June 17, 2022, a recording of this webinar is available at the SDA website here.

Earlier this year, the Division adopted the Local Government Opt-Out rule that provides direction to local government employers, including special districts, that choose to participate or decline to participate in the FAML I Program.
